

Megalodon (Carcharocles megalodon) was the largest shark to ever live and may have grown up to 50 feet (16 meters) long.

Megalodon lived in shallow seas, 16 to 2.9 million years ago. Their teeth were up to 7 inches (18 centimeters) long. They used them to eat whales.